9:00 should work, although it is hard to predict what a good time is with the little ones. If I can't do it I will just have to jump off the call and connect with you later.

Let's plan on Thursday morning. I propose 9:00 am. Jennifer, will this work for you?

I do think a check in would be helpful. I am fine with either wed morning late, or Thursday morning anytime before 11:30. Bob

I would recommend Thursday morning to let people keep plugging away unless someone feels a specific need. Jennifer, by all means, get what you need from Burt.

RE: Problem Formulation Check-in?

The best time for me to check in would be late morning tomorrow or Thursday morning. I am unavailable all afternoon tomorrow in meetings. However, it would be beneficial to coordinate with Burt first thing tomorrow so I can continue work. Burt, are you available? I get in at 9:00.

I have been tied up in meetings all day. Carrie briefed me on the status of the PF. While I do not want to get in the way of people working on the PF, we may need to regroup to figure out where we are, what needs to get done and whether there are any questions.

I cancelled the TCT meeting and I am assuming (though it is not confirmed) that I have a managers meeting with the LWG on Wednesday from 1 - 3. We could have a check in Wednesday afternoon - say 4:00 pm or Thursday morning (depending on Jennifer's schedule)..

Please let me know if you think this would be helpful and what time would work best.

Thanks, Eric
